

6 facts you should know about Teva

Teva is one of the leading pharma companies in the world, committed to increasing access to quality health solutions, and has an unparalleled impact on patients and healthcare systems worldwide.

This is how we enable people to live better, healthier lives

1

Enabling access to high quality medicines and health solutions

The world's largest medicine cabinet

with more than

1,800 medicines

A full spectrum of products from generics to specialty and biologics

 57,000
employees

Serving 200,000,000 people every day

2

Focused specialty leadership

Centered on core therapeutic areas

Migraine and headache

Multiple sclerosis, movement disorders and neurodegeneration

Pain

Respiratory

3

Top 3 leadership position in over 40 markets

1 in 6 prescriptions in the US

1 in 8 prescription packs in Germany

1 in 8 prescription packs in the UK

Global generic leadership

Delivered $215B in savings to U.S. healthcare system in the past decade

6 facts you should know about Teva

Teva is one of the leading pharma companies in the world, committed to increasing access to quality health solutions, and has an unparalleled impact on patients and healthcare systems worldwide.

This is how we enable people to live better, healthier lives

4

Global reach

Commercial presence in 80 markets

Sales in over 100 markets

Portfolio of 16,000 products globally

5

Best in class R&D capabilities

26 R&D and clinical development sites

Pending 300 product registrations pending FDA approval

Launches 1,000 generic launches globally in 2017

Leading with 100 pending first-to-file ANDAs in the U.S.

Over 600 pending product approvals in growth markets

6

One of the most competitive operational networks in the industry

Manufactures 120 billion tablets & capsules annually

TEVA